

I think I would be a terrible mistake to change this law now. Everyone I know has signed up for the DO NOT CALL, It has stopped so many unwanted phone calls. Although I still get some from charitys that are not profit. they said the DO NOT CALL, does not apply to them, (is this correct)? Are there people and companies that do not have to listen to the do not call list?